

Wipe those tears from your eyes. I know it might seem overwhelming, but things do get better. I hope that my life can be remembered for the good times, not the bad, and the lessons I learned along the way. ~~I believed~~ I was born into this life with a family that has cared for me in ways that could never be overstated. Mom and Dad, you put up with my crazy antics as a small child, and never faltered in your commitment to raise me the best you could. I didn't see it at the time. I hope you remember the good times, like driving the mower into the garage, and not like the time I bit Blake's ear part of Blake's ear off. Sorry Big Brother. Mamma and Pop, your unmitigated determination to give me a life that you never had ~~helped~~ ~~me develop~~ ~~warm~~ ~~my heart~~ to as children showed every day was evident every day we spent together. For you, it was never about the money, ~~and~~ time, or energy it took to help raise me. It was about my happiness, which was truly an act of love that showed no bounds. ~~Mamma, your generosity~~ I teared up to the day this letter was written ^{when} thinking about everything you've done for me. Mamma, your ^{gifts} ~~generosity~~ ~~with~~ ~~towards the people~~ ~~a~~ ~~countless~~ people of homemade food ~~towards~~ to hundreds, if not thousands. It was about the joy in giving ~~nurtishment~~ to others. of people ~~taught~~ ~~reminded~~ me of the importance of generosity. The joy of ~~on~~ having ^{equality} enough, and sharing with others, out of goodness, is a virtue all should strive for. Mamma, you embodied this.

Pop, you taught me valuable lessons. The

The most important being that a good friend is worth their weight in gold. You were right. Finding friends that inspire you to be a better person are rare, and should be kept close to your heart.

~~Satnam~~ ~~Being~~ ~~the first~~ I had many friends that inspired me, but none more than Satnam. Satnam, your name inspires so many good thoughts. I never met anyone in my life so committed to another human being's welfare, at ~~your~~ you were to me, ~~I inspire for those who never knew you.~~ ~~You taught me life skills such as meditation, goodwill, compassion, determination.~~ Many in this room know of the heartache she went through, but remained determined in helping me find happiness. I mourn for those who never knew you. The rising sun will always speak your name.

You taught me the values of ~~kindness~~ of being a good person.

But currently, you inspire those around you to improve their health, both physically and mentally.

~~end:~~ end: I want you to keep this note close to your hearts, because this was ~~my hearts~~ the same of the goodness that I had learned from those ~~ones~~ closest to me. May you all find happiness, may you all find lasting peace in each ~~and~~ ~~every one of you~~ ~~But~~ the goodness you have done.

I want my family and friends, if it's not unbearable, to keep a copy of this letter. To ~~if you~~ remember me by.

It saddens me I left this way. I had a beautiful family and friends. I know they would do anything for me. But, please understand, that my problem could not be fixed. Talking about it would not help it go away. I wanted to find some peace from the danger. I hope my life can be remembered for the good times and the lessons I learned.

Mom and Dad, you put up with my crazy antics as a child, and never faltered in raising me the best you could. I know you would do anything for me, and I wish I could have stayed. I cried so much, pleading not to go. I know how rare it is to be born to such caring parents. But I saw no other way out. Do not blame yourselves for things you could have done differently, the fault is my own. I hope you both find happiness even after I am gone.

Bryce, I am proud of how far you've come. You appear so happy compared to just a few years ago. I hope you never forget the principles you worked so hard to develop. I hope you find peace in the fact that I am no longer here. I was living every day in fear, and I couldn't go on. Thank you, Big Brother, for the goodness you have shown me. Just remember that my problem couldn't be solved from talking, or I would've come to you. I hope you and Laryn stay together, you appear so happy.

Satnam, your name inspires so many good thoughts in so many people's minds. You are like Naruto, you raise up others and inspire them to be better people, just like you inspired me. No one has sacrificed more for me like you have, but remained determined to help me in my darkest hours. Promise me you will continue to be a good person, and continue to inspire others like you do on Instagram. I'm sorry. Please forgive me. I love you, and I thank you. My problem was not about you, and I could not have solved it through talking, or I would've come to you. I hope you find lasting peace.

Mamoo and Pop, your determination to give me a life that you never had growing up was evident every day we spent together. I have learned so much about life from both of you. Mamoo, you taught me the value of generosity. Your gifts of homemade food to hundreds, if not thousands, of people without expecting anything in return reminded me of the importance of sharing and all the happiness that comes with it. Pop, you taught me the value of friendship. You taught me that good friends are worth their weight in gold, and you were right. Please don't blame yourselves. You couldn't have done more to help me. It saddens me that I have left this life knowing I had grandparents like you. I hope you find peace when I'm not around. I did not want to leave, especially knowing I had grandparents like you. Thank you both for everything.

Mark, thank you for giving me a home. Your kindness in giving me a home can never be overstated. I hope you continue to meditate and find that happiness that will give you a home wherever you go. Thank you.

Nanny and Pop, thank you for all things you have done for me in your kindness. I miss the times you would pick us up from Dad's house and feed us breakfast. You both were always willing to go out of your way to help me whenever I need it. I'm sorry I had to go so suddenly, but I saw no other way out. I love you both very much, and know that I've finally found a place to rest.

To All

I'm sorry I left so suddenly. It was so hard to leave knowing the family and friends I would leave behind. I'm sure people go through lifetimes without having a family like you all. You taught me generosity, kindness, goodwill, meditation, hard work, and so many other skillful qualities. Just remember the way to find happiness is developing good qualities within your minds. Promise me you will do good so you can find the peace we are all yearning for. Love thy neighbor, but more importantly love yourselves. Above all, hold on to your friends that inspire you to be a better person. I did not want to leave this life, but the problems I faced was one I no longer had control over. Please don't make the same mistake I did, and always ask yourself if your actions have any long term consequences that could be harmful to your self or others. I leave behind this wish of goodwill; May you all find happiness in your hearts by being true to yourself and others.

Will

I would like my family and friends to share in my possessions when I am gone. I would like to share my clothes and shoes with those family that would get good use of them. I have many nice dress shoes and boots that have seen little wear, and would like them to go to a home where they would be well used. Even though I may be gone, I want the thought of generosity to live on through the ones I loved.

Value of possessions are in sharing them.
★ I would like the note saying

I have.

Value of items

- rogue trucks: ~$150 used
- gunmetal v2 trucks x 3 sets: ~$40 each set
- stringing machine: ~$500-600 if sold on Ebay. ^(new)
- Angell tennis rackets: ~$100-140 each.
(Blake can have the rackets I gave him if he uses them often. Anyone who will use them can share tennis strings).
- longboards: Varying value (share with Bryce and others if they will use them.
- Bryce might know value of longboard supplies like wheels and trucks.)
- Car: Give to Eli if he still needs vehicle, although he needs to finish paying Mamoo and Pop if he gets it.
- Electronics: Share with people that will use them well.
- eCig Juice flavors: Share with Bryce and bottles so he can make his own juice.
"All the flavors" and Reddit DM juice will help him mix flavors.
- I would like any money leftover in bank or from "selling" stuff to be donated to "Metta Forest Monastery" in San Diego County in California. They were/are an amazing place for people to do good.

- Meditation books: Give "each and every Breath" to Blake, and share with others who want to meditate. DO NOT SELL these please.

Feel free to donate things if family/friends won't have a good use for them, or sell on Ebay / other sites and donate money to the Metta Forest Monastery. You can call them to ask how to donate. Dhammatalks.org and Watmetta.org can give you more info.

I also have many cigars that can be shared with people that have a humidor. The beads I have for humidity are heartfelt 65% RH, instructions online. Check each cigar for beetles (cigar beetles) before putting in new humidor. Thank you, and I hope family/friends can find a lot of use out of my old possession. If item is of much monetary value and family won't use it much, I would like it to be sold ^{for fair price} and donate money.

Mom

I am very sorry for this. You didn't deserve this. As a mother, you did everything you could for me. You were so loving, and I could not have asked for a better family. I made a major mistake, and I take full responsibility for it. If it would have helped, I would have come to you about it. But I couldn't, this was the only way out I saw. I want to thank you for everything you have done for me. I look around at all the people who do not have loving families, and feel blessed for how lucky I was. I think Mark is a great guy, and I hope you can fully forgive him for his past transgressions. I hope you find a lasting happiness in your life. Thank you Mom, for being so loving and supportive of me throughout my life.

Satnam, you are the person
I will miss the most. Your character is one that I admire most of all.
You always put in the effort to help me
the best you could, and I couldn't be more grateful for it. Please promise me you will move on from all this, keep the loving memories in your heart, and strive to continually be the best person that you can be. My love for you is immeasurable. Please remember this has nothing to do with you. You always taught me ~~right~~ right from wrong. I thank you so much for it. I'm sorry, please forgive me. I love you, and I thank you.

Dad, never forget that your son loves you so much. You were always there for me when I needed you.
I am sorry it ended this way for me.
This has NOTHING to do with you. This was a personal problem. I know nothing I say will lighten the pain, but I hope you remember that you were a caring and loving Father. I wish I could have spent more time together.
Instead, do your best to be the best person you can be everyday. Live life so at the end, you have 0 regrets. I love you, and I hope you find peace.

Martin, my brother from another mother, thanks for always being such a great friend. You always were a good influence, and a friend I cherished to the end. Keep living life! I hope you live your life 100% regret free, and I hope you live a life you can look back on knowing that you made the most of your time here on Earth. Life is so short, so live every day like it is. I wish you the best my friend. Love you.

Final Thoughts

Looking back on the life that I've lived, there are a few things I would have done differently. Don't make the same mistakes! Firstly, I wish I didn't take for granted what I had, and the family I was blessed with is so amazing. These past few months has reminded me how important it is to have family and friends. I wish that I expressed that more in my life. I truly am thankful. I wish I used my time more wisely, and not so much on entertainment. Entertainment is okay, but not when it distracts us from learning new skills and bettering ourselves. I also wish I lived a life void of regrets. Peace of mind is the most important thing in life. Don't take it for granted, please. If you are not at peace, do what you can to free yourself from stress and suffering, and never act in ways to create these shackles. Learn from your mistakes, and see how far you can go in life! I feel so blessed to have been given this human birth. I thank everyone who raised me and taught me right from wrong. I hope you can use this opportunity of being human to do good and be true. I am sorry for any pain that I have caused you all. It was not my intent. I hope you learn from my mistakes, and fulfill the amazing potential of being human. May you all find true happiness in your hearts and fulfill my final wish.

Logan, thank you for being a good friend. I hope you can find the strength to move on and continue to grow as a person. You are a brilliant guy, and I hope you can reach your true potential. My final wishes to you are to not waste the precious time that you have been given. Live every day like it may be your last, because your last can come at any time. I wish that you develop the skills necessary to finding happiness, because they are so essential! Goodwill, generosity, virtue, meditation, etc. May you fulfill my final wish, for you to find true happiness and share your joy with others. Love you Brother.
